1. HAPPY NEW YEAR: L'SHANA TOVA TIKATEVU V'TICHATAMO - :V-MAIL FROM WORLD WAR II "PEACE, PEACE TO HIM WHO IS FAR OFF AND TO HIM THAT IS NEAR...." GUAM, SAIPAN, TINIAN, IWO"

Circa, US Military Post, 1944

Approx 28 x 22cm. L'shana Tova: Rosh Hashanah V-Mail from World War II. This one was for use by the US Forces in the Pacific. This is an unused copy to be completed by the sender and then photographed and then transported for printing.

To ease the burden on the postal system, V-mail was introduced during World War II for correspondence with service members stationed abroad. Stationery was photographed and transported on microfilm and then reproduced on small paper sheets at the destination. It was the primary way for soldiers and their families at home to communicate during the war. This method was also used for sending Shana Tovah [Happy New Year Cards and Greetings] and Passover related greetings etc. Some of these were made from templates provided by Jewish chaplains. They illustrate the importance of the holidays and friends and family to the morale of these men and women. This item relates to the South Pacific and the areas that were impacted by the Battle of Tinian. The National Museum of American Jewish Military History has 11 examples on its website (used ones), not including this one.

2. [HOLOCAUST] JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE - ALBUM CENTRAL BUREAU FOR THE SETTLEMENT OF GERMAN JEWS
Jerusalem, Jewish Agency for Palestine Central Bureau For the Settlement of German Jews 1937.

Oblong cloth album 34 x 23cm, photos 13 x 18 cm. Wear to covers of album. There appear to be no copies on Worldcat. There are about 50 photographs annotated in English showing the provision for and integration of German Jews into Palestine.

From the introduction:

"This album illustrates some of the activities of the Central Bureau for the Settlement of German Jews, which were set on foot in October 1933. These activities were financed in the main from contributions of American Jewry, the Central British Fund for German Jewry, the Council for German Jewry the Keren Hayesod.... JNF.

The services rendered by the Central Bureau to the immigrants were of a comprehensive character. They included the reception and care of the immigrants on landing, the provision of temporary housing accommodation and the creation of training facilities. Special attention was paid to the settlement of newcomers on the land. With this object in view existing agricultural settlements were enlarged and new ones established. Industrial development was assisted by long term credits. Furthermore, provision was made for cultural requirements and social services.

Special mention should be made of the youth immigration scheme under which some 1,600 youths have been placed in agricultural settlements and educational institutions.

The number of German-Jewish immigrants to Palestine totals about 40,000. The funds hitherto spent by the Central Bureau aggregate £P 450,000. The enclosed photographs are intended to illustrate the various activities undertaken by the Central Bureau for the Settlement of German Jews. Jerusalem, February, 1937.”

3. HERTZ, DR J H RECONQUERING A HOLY LAND - SERMON PREACHED BEFORE THE DELEGATES OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF JEWISH ASSOCIATIONS FOR THE PROTECTION OF GIRLS AND WOMEN.

London, Women's Printing Society, 1927

Original wrappers, 22cm, 8 pp, very good condition. Includes the opening prayer both in Hebrew and English [....."Thou who favourest man with knowledge, and teachest mortals understanding, mercifully bestow upon us the aid of Thy fatherly guidance in the work which lies before us on this and the coming days .....

.."] White slavery was a big problem for the Jewish community in the later part of the 19th Century and in the early part of the 20th century. Jewish traffickers would lure Jewish women from Eastern Europe under the guise of marrying them or promising them jobs in London or other major cities. The traffickers would often meet vulnerable women when they arrived at the ports. To counter this the Jewish Association for the Protection of Girls and Women was founded in 1885 by Constance Flower [Rothschild, Baroness Battersea] and Claude Montefiore. They sent agents to the docks to protect vulnerable women and girls from the traffickers and held several conferences in London which had the support of Chief Rabbis Adler and Hertz as this sermon demonstrates. E. K. Shields-Collins, H. Gillender, J. Seymour Spon, Richard Jefferies, Hugh Gosschalk, G. S. Bishop, P. Anderton, seven members of the London University Union, in the Daily Telegraph, June 12:—

'We, the undersigned, were present in the audience of the Fascist meeting at Olympia last Thursday, and wish to bring to your notice the following cases of brutality committed by members of the British Union of Fascists, of all of which we were personally witnesses. We have carefully avoided all hearsay, and are prepared to swear affidavits to all of the following:—

'(1) A man rose in the body of the hall and shouted, "Hitler did . . ." About fifteen Fascists in uniform fell on him, knocked him to the floor and kicked him repeatedly. He was then thrown down the stairs.

'(2) A girl was being carried out by nine male Fascists when one of the signatories intervened, as she was being hit by them in the body. He was attacked by several more and beaten. The girl was seized by a number of women Fascists, who scratched her face and tore her hair.

'(3) A man near the Press seats shouted a single word. A Fascist wearing a badge rose behind him and hit him so savagely on the head with a cane walking-stick that he was knocked unconscious, and the stick was broken in two.

'(4) A semi-conscious man was being carried out pinioned and bleeding. Several Fascists in uniform attacked him, but were eventually restrained by one of their own officers.

'(5) A woman in the arena protested at the display of violence. A male Fascist seized her by the throat with considerable force and with . . . threw her out.

51.      BERKOVIC, SALLY. - DEATH
DUTIES. London, Fishburn Books, 2022

Original decorative cloth with dust jacket to match, 22cm, 72 pp. Colour and black and white illustrations.

In intimate detail, Sally Berkovic takes the reader into the heart of Jewish burial and mourning rites. But this is not merely a 'how-to' guide; rather she also shares her experience and impact of multiple losses and its lasting legacy on family relationships. Death Duties challenges us to consider those we will leave behind and as such is timely reflection on the wider conversation surrounding death and memorialisation during the pandemic. ISBN 978-0-9552875-9-6 [ref: 20952] £13
