"next year in Worms on the Rhine, our home." [!!!]

Offenbacher Haggadah
Item 1, Description overleaf

1. KREDEL, FRITZ. OFFENBACHER HAGGADAH. Offenbach Verlag des Herausgebers Doktor Guggenheim 1927

Original wrappers, 30 cm, 97 pp, illustrated. Text in German with some Hebrew. Copy nr. 60 of the limited edition of 300 copies. Printed in two colours on Zerkatt Butten paper including 12 hand-coloured illustrated pages by the artist. Wear and fraying to wrappers at edges of wrappers, some tearing to spine.

The Offenbach Haggadah was commissioned by Dr. Siegfried Guggenheim (1873-1961) an attorney and avid collector of rare books in Offenbach, near Frankfurt. The type designer Rudolf Koch created new fonts and the painter Fritz Kredel, a student of Koch's, illustrated the new Haggadah inspired by the first Offenbach Haggadah which was printed in 1772. The new version was published in 1927 by the brothers Klingspor in a bibliophile edition of 300 copies. Guggenheim translated the Hebrew text into German, provided the transliterations of the Hebrew blessings and also inserted a novelty into the service. Instead of ending with "next year in Jerusalem, the Offenbach Haggadah concludes with the words: "next year in Worms on the Rhine, our home." [!!!] OCLC 10270595 Yudlov #3054; Ya'ari 2042 [ref: 15627]

2. AMERICANS AWAKE! FIGHT NAZISM! New York, Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights [1939]

4. DESTRUCTION STALKS

New York, American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee [1940]
 Pamphlet. Four-panel brochure, 23 x 19cm vertical fold crease, year of receipt penned at bottom of rear cover, otherwise very good. Seeks support for efforts to ameliorate the plight of Jews in Europe, including aid to refugees who had already fled the continent. "Until recently there were two kinds of Jews in Europe - those who could help and those who had to be helped. That time is past. No matter what their former economic status may have been, the Jewish men, women and children of Europe are now all in a single class of impoverishment and despair. They have nothing to look forward to except starvation, disease and ultimate extermination unless some form of rescue is brought to them, and brought to them quickly...".

11. [HAGGADAH] LECHAG HACHERUT PERAKIM L'MESIVOT PESACH
Tel Aviv, 1948

Original wrappers, 24cm, 18 pp. Text in Hebrew. This Haggadah was written by the Culture Service of the Haganah but was vetoed by the Military Rabbinate of the IDF. The Culture Service thought that an army Passover service should mirror those of the kibbutzim where the kibbutz Haggadah draws a parallel between the exodus from Egypt and the exodus from Europe and the return to Zion after the Holocaust. However, the Rabbinate of the IDF demanded that all Haggadot created and distributed by the IDF should be traditional ones. Rabbi Shlomo Goren asked Ben Gurion to shelve this particular Haggadah, and he agreed. The first cup of wine is raised to the Jewish State. The illustrations are by Arieh Alliweil. Aviram PAZ No 98. ...from the twenty-eight nations who are assembled here to-night, also upon the immense and wonderful gathering of the Jewish people that I see around me, to forgo aimless criticism, to put their shoulders to the wheel, to do everything and make every possible sacrifice so that we can prove ourselves worthy of every confidence placed in us by the British Government. I call upon Mr. Arthur Balfour to address you.

The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, M.P.

The RIGHT HON. ARTHUR JAMES BALFOUR, M.P., on rising to speak, was received with very great applause, the whole audience rising and cheering enthusiastically. He said—Lord Rothschild, my lords, ladies, and gentlemen—For long I have been a convinced Zionist, and it is in that character that I come before you to-day, though in my most sanguine moments I never foresaw, I never even conceived, the possibility that the great work of Palestinian reconstruction would happen so soon, or that indeed it was likely to happen in my own lifetime. This is one of the great and unexpected results of the world struggle which has just come to an end—even if, indeed, we dare to say that it has yet completely come to an end. Of infinite evils that struggle has been the parent, but if among its results we can count the re-establishment in their ancient home of the Jewish people, at all events we can put to its credit one great result which under other circumstances, so far as we can see, could never have occurred at so early a date. Who would have thought five or six years ago that a speaker in the Albert Hall would be able to recount as an accomplished fact that the Great Powers of the world had elected to accept the Declaration to which Lord Rothschild has referred, had consented to give a Mandate to the country which at all events is the object of the effort among those who desire to see this policy brought

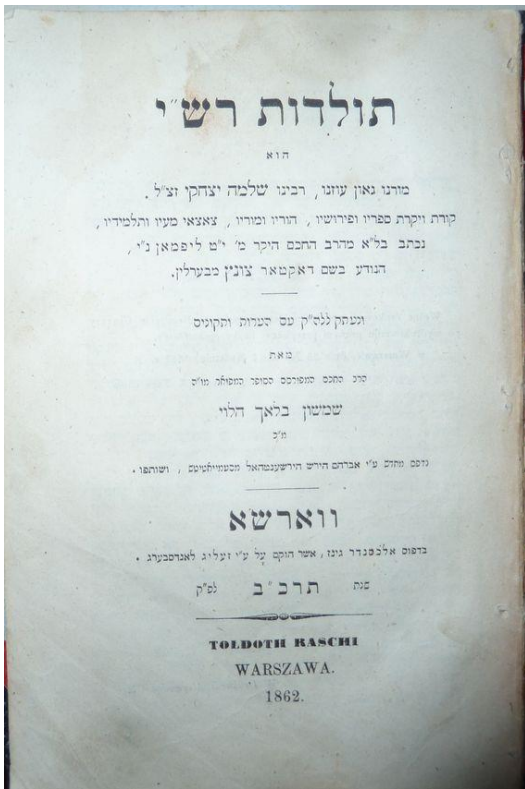

36. THE ZIONIST ORGANISATION GREAT BRITAIN AND ZIONISM, ALBERT HALL MEETING, JULY 12TH, 1920 London the Zionist Organisation 1920

Original wrappers, 21cm, 20 pp, some rusting to staples overall very good condition. A Demonstration, organised by the English Zionist Federation, to thank the British Government for the San Remo decision to incorporate the Balfour Declaration for the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine in the Treaty of Peace with Turkey. It was held at the Albert Hall, London on Monday night, July 12th, 1920. It was the most extraordinary meeting in the annals of Anglo-Jewry. Long before the meeting there was something in the nature of a Jewish pilgrimage westward and the vast hall was besieged by a huge crowd. Fully, 30,000 applications had been received for admission, and many who were too late for tickets came in the hope that place would be found for them. The Hall holds more than 10,000 and very soon it was packed from arena to top most gallery..... (from the first page of the pamphlet) Contains speeches by Lord Rothschild, Arthur Balfour, Nahum Sokolow, Chaim Weizmann and others. [ref: 21896]

CHURCHILL ANALYSES HITLERISM

THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE IS BASED ON EXTRACTS
FROM AN ARTICLE BY RT. HON. WINSTON CHURCHILL "THE TRUTH ABOUT HITLER."

Hitler's success, and, indeed, his survival as a political force, would not have been possible but for the lethargy and folly of the French and British Governments since the War, and especially in the last three years. No sincere attempt was made to come to terms with the various moderate governments of Germany, which existed upon a parliamentary system.

Hitler arrived at supreme power in Germany at the head of a national socialist movement which wiped out all the states and old kingdoms of Germany and fused them into one whole. At the same time, Nazidom suppressed and obliterated by force, wherever necessary, all other parties in the state. At this very moment he found that the secret organization of German industry and aviation, which the German general staff and latterly the Weimar Government had built up, was in fact

It was not till 1935 that the full terror of this revelation broke upon the careless and imprudent world, and Hitler, casting aside concealment, sprang forward armed to the teeth, with his munition factories roaring night and day, his aeroplane squadrons forming in ceaseless succession, his submarine crews exercising in the Baltic, and his armed hosts tramping the barrack squares from one end of the broad Reich to the other.

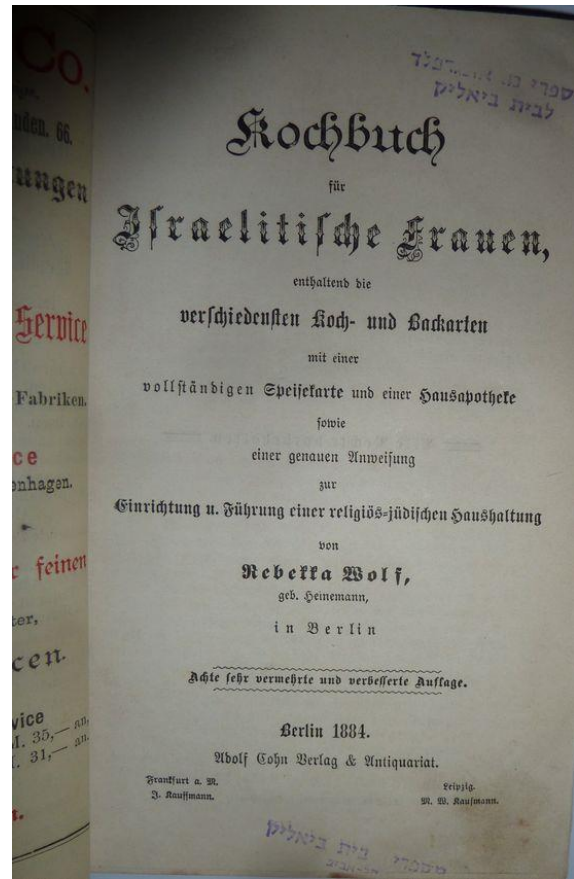

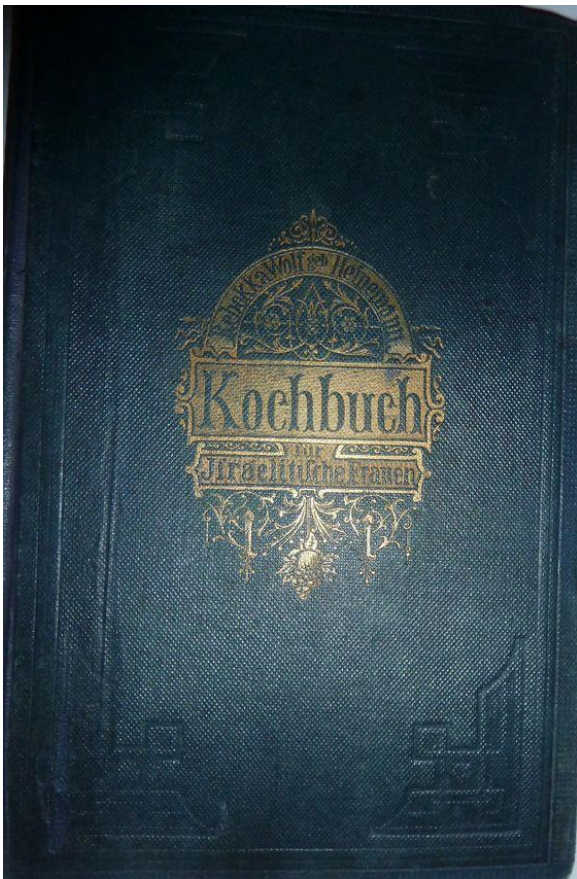

It is certainly not strange that everyone should want to know "the truth about Hitler." What will he do with the tremendous powers already in his grasp and perfecting themselves week by week? If, as I have said, we look only at the past, which is all we have to judge by, we must indeed feel anxious. Hitherto, Hitler's triumphant career has been borne onwards, not only by a passionate love

51. BERKOVIC, SALLY. - DEATH DUTIES.

London, Fishburn Books, 2022

Original decorative cloth with dust jacket to match, 22cm, 72 pp. Colour and black and white illustrations.

In intimate detail, Sally Berkovic takes the reader into the heart of Jewish burial and mourning rites. But this is not merely a 'how-to' guide; rather she also shares her experience and impact of multiple losses and its lasting legacy on family relationships. Death Duties challenges us to consider those we will leave behind and as such is timely reflection on the wider conversation surrounding death and memorialisation during the pandemic.
